

Are you an emerging rehabilitation research leader?

Apply now to receive a $5,000 stipend so you can appoint a student to work with you over the 2017/18 summer period to advance your research programme.

Applicants must:

- have attended the 2017 NZRA conference
- be up to 5 years post-PhD
- be working in New Zealand over the award period
- be able to demonstrate they are on a research trajectory and that the award would support them to advance their research programme

Applications will be independently scored by a sub-committee formed by the NZRA executive. Scores will be based on:

1. Scientific excellence
2. Contribution to rehabilitation knowledge
3. Leadership potential
4. Significance of the award to research career advancement

Application process:

- The application form can be downloaded from the NZRA website <http://www.rehabilitation.org.nz/>
- Email your application by 4pm, Monday 09 October to president@rehabilitation.org.nz
- Applicants will be advised of the outcome by Monday 23 October.
- Evidence of ethics approval must be provided before funds will be released.
